21. These covenants and restrictions are to run with the land, and shall be binding on all parties and persons claiming ownership thereto.

ARTICLE III
PROPERTY RIGHTS

1. Every Owner shall have a right and easement of enjoyment in and to the Common Area which shall be appurtenant to and shall pass with the title to every lot.

2. Every Owner of a lot which is subject to assessment shall be a member of the Association. Membership shall be appurtenant to and may not be separated from ownership of any lot which is subject to assessment.

3. Each Owner of any Lot by acceptance of a deed thereof, whether or not is shall be so expressed in such deed, is deemed to covenant and agree to pay to the Association:
(1) annual assessments or charges, and (2) special assessments for capital improvements, such assessments to be established and collected as hereinafter provided. The annual and special assessments, together with interest, costs and reasonable attorney's fees, shall be a charge on the land and shall be a continuing lien upon the property against which each such assessment is made and may be recorded of record. Each such assessment, together with interest, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees, shall also be the personal obligation of the person who was the Owner of such property at the time when the assessment fell due. The personal obligation for delinquent assessments shall not pass to his successors in title unless expressly assumed by them but, if delinquent at the time of sale, and no provision has been paid from payment, then the lien expressed by this provision shall continue, notwithstanding said sale.

4. The assessments levied by the Association shall be used exclusively to promote the recreation, health, safety, and welfare of the residents in the Properties and for the improvement and maintenance of the Common Area, and of the homes situated upon the properties for the common benefit of all Owners. Any assessment not paid within thirty (30) days after the due date shall bear interest from the due date at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum. The Association may bring an action at law against the Owner personally obligated to pay the same, or foreclose the lien against the property. No Owner may waiver or otherwise escape liability for the assessments provided for herein by non use of the Common Area or abandonment of his Lot.

The annual assessment provided for herein shall commence as to each lot when it is sold by the Developer, excluding a sale to a home contractor, on the first day of the month following said sale.

The initial monthly assessment shall be fifteen ($15.00) dollars, but may be adjusted by the Homeowners' Associations or, the Developer, if no Homeowners' Association has been organized, on an annual basis, by a vote of the majority of lot owners, each lot having one (10) vote. (Ex: If a husband and wife own a lot jointly, they have a single vote)

5. Attorney Fees and Court Costs: If the party attempting to enforce these restrictions shall prevail in any proceeding at law or at equity, such party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees and court costs, which will be assessed against the party which is found to be in violation of such restrictions.
6. Abatement or Removal of Violations: Violation of any restriction or covenant, except such violations as have been waived by failure to take action shall give the Developer and its successors and assigns, acting through appointment of its duly designated representative, the right to enter upon the property where such violations exists and summarily abate or remove the same at the expense of the Owner, and such entry and abatement or removal shall not be deemed as trespass or any other civil or criminal act, the permission and consent thereto being given hereby both express and implied by the acceptance of the Title Deed to the property within this subdivision.
7. The Association, or any Owner, shall have the right to enforce, by any proceeding at law or in equity, all restrictions, conditions, covenants, reservations, liens, and charges now or hereafter imposed by the provisions of this Declaration. Failure by the Association or by any Owner to enforce any covenant or restriction herein contained shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter.
8. Invalidation of any one of these covenants or restrictions by judgment or court order shall in no wise affect any other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.

9. The covenants and restrictions of this Declaration shall run with and bind the land, for a term of twenty (20) years from the date this Declaration is recorded, after which time they shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten (10) years. The Developer may amend these covenants and restrictions at any time until fifty percent (50%) of the lots have been sold, provided the amendment may be applicable and beneficial to the existing Owners. Thereafter, this Declaration may be amended during the first twenty (20) year period by an instrument signed by not less than ninety percent (90%) of the Lot Owners, and thereafter by an instrument signed by not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the Lot Owners. Any amendment must be recorded.

ARTICLE IV

ARCHITECTURAL CONTROL AND BUILDING COMMITTEE

No building, fence, wall, or other structure shall be commenced, erected, or maintained on the Properties, nor shall any exterior addition to or change or alteration therein be made until the plans, and specifications showing the nature, kind, shape, height, materials, and location of the same shall have been submitted to and approved in writing as to harmony of external design and location in relation to surrounding structures and topography, by the Developer, and the successors to the Developer or by the Architectural Committee composed of representatives appointed by the Developer. The initial Architectural Committee shall consist of Albert Kirkland and Gayla White. In the event the Developer or the Architectural Committee, fails to approve or disapprove such design and location within thirty (30) days after said plans and specifications have been submitted to it, approval will not be required and this Article will be deemed to have been fully complied with.

The approval or disapproval must be in writing.

There shall be an initial Board of the Homeowners' Association and Architectural Committee which shall consists of the Developer or their designated representative. Upon the sale of ninety percent (90%) of the lots in the subdivision, the Developer's responsibilities will end, and the Owners shall form an Association to maintain the compliance with these restrictions and covenants.
